Dublin Caſtle, 13th June, 1798.

THE Accounts received from General Nugent this Morning, confirm the Statement that the diſaffected in the County of Antrim were delivering up their Arms, and ſhewing every Symptom of Contrition.

A Letter received from Major General Sir Charles Aſgill ſtates, that Captain Heatly, of the Wicklow Militia, had fallen in with a Party of the REBELS near Roar, on returning from Roſs to Gowran, and killed forty of them.

The Pariſh of Roar, and the adjoining Pariſhes, have offered to ſurrender all their Arms; and the Major General hopes that the County of Kilkenny will be immediately reſtored to Tranquillity.
